

Arts for Learning
Connecticut

An Affiliate of Young Audiences
Arts for Learning

3074 Whitney Avenue
Building 2, 2nd Floor
Hamden, CT 06518
203-230-8101 203-230-8131 (fax)
www.aflct.org

Board of Directors

Lorraine Mallet Consiglio
Cigna Corporation
Chair

Brian Penry
Penry Creative, Inc.
Vice Chair

Vincent A. Pescosolido
S & S Worldwide
Treasurer

Padma Srimatkandada
University of Connecticut
Secretary

Joann Pulisciano
Mortgage Broker

Patricia C. A. Sasser
Loomis Chafee School

Angela Scipio
Post University

Anne C. Witkavitch
Communications Consultant

Steven J Zakrzewski, Esq.
Gordon & Rees, LLP

December 27, 2016

To Whom It May Concern:

Karim Nagi has been on the roster of Arts for Learning Connecticut for over a decade. During this time period, his engaging and educational performance, Arabiqa: Arab Music Dance & Culture, is a program consistently noted for the highest quality that impacts students and families throughout the state of Connecticut. His performances and workshops impart the Arab culture and traditions through dance and music.

During his tenure on the Arts for Learning Connecticut roster, Karim Nagi, has performed over 200 well-received programs for student and family audiences. This program truly brings awareness of Arab culture to young people and families has been a favorite in schools, community settings, museums, and outdoor venues.

I have always found that Karim Nagi is professional and extremely easy and pleasant to work with. Consistent delivery of high quality programming, flexibility in working with educators, and a depth of knowledge in the art forms of music and dance all describe Karim Nagi.

I would highly recommend Karim Nagi and Arabiqa: Arab Music Dance & Culture to other Young Audiences affiliate rosters based on our experience with Karim and the consistent favorable reviews.

Sincerely,

Eileen M. Carpinella
Executive Director